Visas

US citizens need a visa to enter Cuba. You can apply for a tourist visa online or through a travel agent. The cost of a tourist visa is $50. You will also need to provide proof of travel insurance.

Currency

The official currency of Cuba is the Cuban peso (CUP). However, tourists are also able to use the US dollar (USD). It is important to note that the Cuban government charges a 10% tax on all USD transactions.

Safety

Cuba is a relatively safe country for tourists. However, it is important to be aware of your surroundings and to take precautions against petty crime.

Transportation

There are a number of ways to get around Cuba. You can fly into Havana's José Martí International Airport (HAV) or Varadero's Juan Gualberto Gómez Airport (VRA). You can also take a ferry from Miami to Havana.

Things to do

There are many things to do in Cuba. You can visit the historic city of Havana, explore the beautiful beaches of Varadero, or hike in the Sierra Maestra mountains.

Tips

Here are a few tips for traveling in Cuba:

- Bring plenty of cash. US dollars are accepted in most places, but it is always a good idea to have some Cuban pesos on hand.
- Learn some basic Spanish. This will help you to communicate with locals and to get around.
- Be prepared for the heat. Cuba is a tropical country and the weather can be hot and humid.
- Be respectful of Cuban culture. This includes avoiding loud noises and dressing modestly.

Cuba is a fascinating country with a rich history and culture. With its beautiful beaches, stunning architecture, and friendly people, Cuba is a great place to visit.
