First, Billy woke up late. Then, he tripped and fell out of bed. His mom had made him his favorite breakfast, but he spilled it all over his shirt. On the way to school, he got lost and ended up late for class. His teacher gave him a pop quiz, which he failed. At lunch, he spilled his milk all over his new shoes.

Billy was so upset that he just wanted to go home and hide. But then, he saw his dog, Sparky, waiting for him at the door. Sparky was always happy to see Billy, no matter what. Billy hugged Sparky and told him all about his terrible day.

Sparky listened patiently, and then he gave Billy a big wet kiss. "Don't worry, Billy," Sparky said. "I'm here for you. We're going to have the best birthday ever."

Billy and Sparky went on an adventure. They played in the park, went for a walk in the woods, and even had a picnic. Billy forgot all about his bad day. He was just happy to be with Sparky.

When it was time to go home, Billy was tired but happy. He thanked Sparky for making his birthday special.

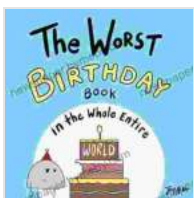

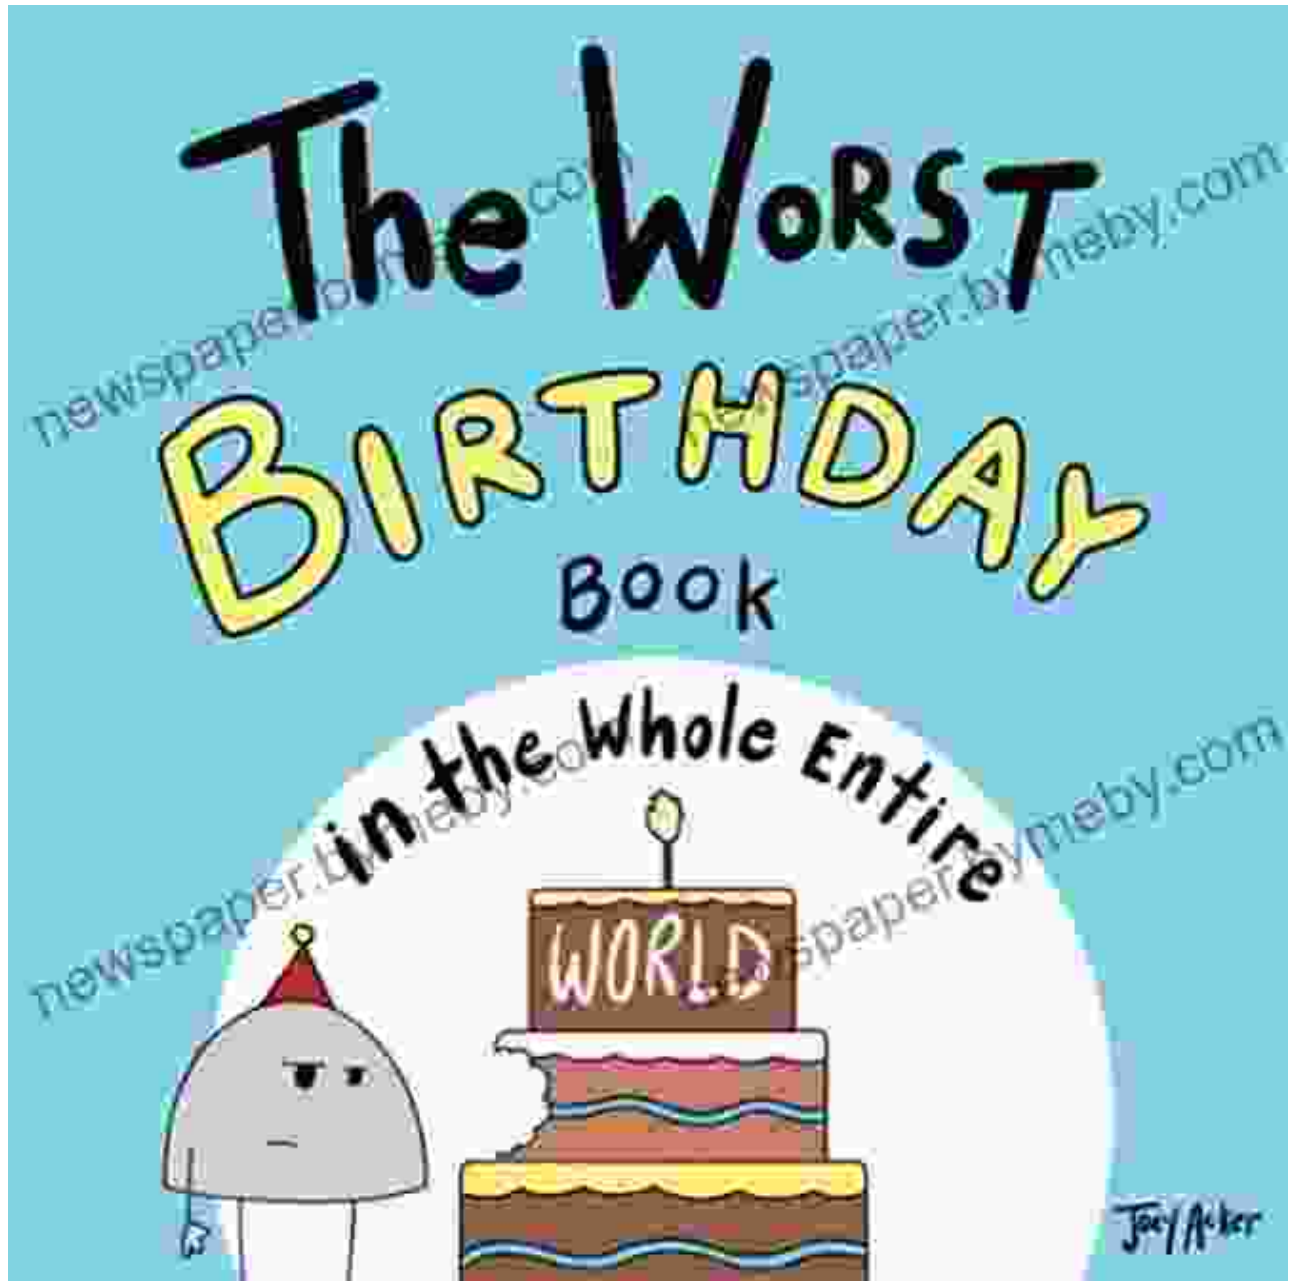

"You're welcome, Billy," Sparky said. "And remember, even the worst birthdays can be good if you have someone to share them with."

Billy went to bed that night feeling happy and content. He had learned that even the worst birthdays can be good if you have someone to share them with.

And that's the story of the worst birthday in the whole entire world.

This hilarious and heartwarming adventure is the perfect book for any child who has ever had a bad day. Billy's story will teach them that even the worst days can be good if you have someone to share them with.
